FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do you keep our section private?

We will rope off your section based on how many people you have confirmed for, it will be your own VIP party

Can I pick what section I want for my party?

We all have our favourite nooks up on the roof too. Feel free to specify what area you would prefer and we will do our best to accommodate your request but we cannot always guarantee.

Can I book out the entire rooftop?

That you can. Your event coordinator will be able to share with you availability and minimum spends for this option.

Can groups just rock up without a booking?

We have capacity for 200 guests on our rooftop, but we cannot guarantee that we would have space and/or the capacity to let you all up at one time.

Are folks under 18 allowed?

Of course! We just require them to be accompanied by their legal guardian.

After our time-slot is up, can we stay up on the rooftop?

Sure you can! We will notify you if we need the space back for a later booking and if so, you will have to join the regular punters in the communal spaces. Also at the conclusion of your event, your section will no longer be sectioned off.

I'm on a bar tab, how does this work?

Simply supply us with a credit card at the start of your event and we can take care of the rest. We will have coloured wrist bands to your confirmed guest numbers to which you can give to your guests, this allows them to add drinks to your tab. We can also arrange a 'secret word' if the wrist bands aren't your thing.

Should I go on a beverage pack?

If you want to take away the uncertainty of picking up the bar tab, and your group are likely to have a few drinks throughout your event, the beverage packs are a great way to go. Just order at the bar, and show your wristband (or secret word) and we will top you up.

Does our beverage pack have to start at the same time as our event start time?

Yes. Make sure your guests aren't tardy to the party.

Can we be on a 3 hour beverage pack and reserve the space for 4 hours? Or do we have to be on the pack for the whole duration?

Event's can run for up to 4 hours. If you are wanting a 3 hour pack, your event will be roped off for 3 hours. 2 hour pack for 2 hours etc etc.

Is there a kids menu?

There isn't a menu for the little ones however there are options available on our standard menu that would be suitable for them.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS CONTINUED

It's my birthday, can I bring a cake?

Happy Birthday! A cakeage fee of $5 per person is required if we are to cut and serve your cake on our crockery. If you are happy for guests to help themselves, we won't charge you for that.

What about balloons?

Sorry, you're going to have to leave the plastic balls of air at home on this one.

A few of my guests have special dietary requirements, will they be catered for?

Not a problem, most groups do these days. That's why the menu is designed to cover an array of special requirements. If there are any tricky ones to note, please send this information through so we can make sure they are looked after on the day.

Can we choose when the food comes out?

The grazing tables take some time to set up, so we set these up to be ready at the start of your event. Further items can be ordered during your event as you require.

Can we order extra food on the day and does this go towards our minimum spend?

You can grab some further eats on the day for sure. The minimum spends need to be reached and confirmed prior to your event commencement with your event coordinator.

What if I book for 70 and 80 rock up?

Aren't you popular! If this happens and you are on a beverage pack, we will update your bill and hand out further wrist bands. If you are on a bar tab, we will offer further wristbands and their drinks will be added to the tab. For the food component you can order more as you see fit. We won't be able to offer any further roped off space once your event is happening.

What if I book for 80 and 70 rock up?

As we have prepared food items and space for that set amount pre your event, the guest numbers confirmed will be the minimum charged.

@rappy weather, now what?

Four seasons in one day? In Melbourne? Never! Should the weather be inclement, our team will do our best to keep your guests undercover with umbrellas, however it should be noted that the venue is exposed, being a rooftop and this is out of our control. If it's going to be a proper whirly one, and you cancel within the time frame allotted in your booking form, we won't charge you.
